Friends Bring Visitor Center to Life

The refuge has not yet received any federal funding for exhibits. All the progress on exhibits has come through the Friends via donations and grants.

Come see our progress!

Wall-sized Coastal Map

The map wall has been installed and it is wonderful!

Thanks to the Quimby Foundation

Refuge Overview Film

Watch the new refuge overview film next time you are at the visitor center.

Thanks to National Fish & Wildlife Foundation and NLT Foundation

Interpretive Panels

Interpretive panels are going up throughout the exhibit area!

Thanks to Maine Community Foundation and John T Sage Foundation

Photo Exhibit

The refuge story in pictures! The photo wall display is now installed.
Progress Continues...
The “Inland Island” and Tile Wall slated for completion in the Winter of 2015.

Friends Support 2014 Island Interns

Seabird Researchers:
One of the great things about the refuge’s seabird restoration work is the field experience it provides for so many young scientists just starting their careers. Our summer island researchers come from all over.

In 2014, FOMSI was able to supplement the allowable volunteer stipends to help the refuge get two well-qualified volunteers who otherwise could not have afforded to work with them.
